Alpha Gamma Delta is a values-driven organization that encourages all members to Live with Purpose. Guided by our Purpose, Alpha Gams are inspired to better themselves and in turn, better the world around them. On October 13, 2013, our sisterhood achieved significant growth at the University of Southern California, as Alpha Gamma Delta welcomed over 130 new members into the organization and the USC greek community.

When choosing the right women to join the newest sorority at USC, Alpha Gamma Delta looked for women who were leaders on campus, who were interested in being trailblazers by starting something new and who wanted to make a positive impact in the community. Alpha Gam has been pleased with the amount of support and excitement received from the greek community at USC this fall. Additionally, the Delta Alpha Chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta is the original home to numerous USC alumnae in the Los Angeles area and many of these women have already found a way to be involved with the new chapter through joining the advisor team and attending colony events.

Since Alpha Gam’s Bid Day, the founding members have celebrated many firsts together including their Sisterhood Retreat, Trojan Family Weekend and Presents, Homecoming Week, the Greek Gala, sisterhood events and so much more. The colony members have shown tremendous enthusiasm as they continue to work together to build a sisterhood, establish traditions and set the standards for the chapter for years to come. The new members of the colony will be initiated the weekend of January 25, 2014 and will receive their charter as the Delta Alpha Chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta. Once the chapter has been installed, the chapter will hold elections and the first officers of Alpha Gam at USC will continue to build upon what our founders at Syracuse started so many years ago.

Thank you to members of USC’s greek community who supported Alpha Gamma Delta in our recruitment efforts this fall. We are looking forward to being a part of your community for years to come!
2013 Greek Gala

An evening to long remember...

On Friday, November 22, 2013, almost 400 members of USC’s greek community gathered in Town and Gown to celebrate their interfraternalism and induct outstanding alumni and parents into the 2013 Greek Hall of Fame! Chaired by Jackie Rosen, Panhellenic Council EVP, the Hall of Fame was a new addition to the growing tradition of the Greek Gala. All chapters were requested to nominate their outstanding alumni leaders and parent volunteers—individuals whose time and talents have contributed immeasurably to the sustained excellence of USC’s greek community in a variety of ways.

After the reception with passed hors d’oeuvres, the formal program was kicked off by Roxie Friberg, 2013 Panhellenic President, who welcomed guests and introduced the Troy Tones. Panhellenic is indebted to the Delta Delta Delta Panhellenic Delegate who arranged for their wonderful performance. Dr. Ainsley Carry, Vice-Provost for Student Affairs, greeted those assembled and added remarks on behalf of senior administration.

A slide show representing all of the councils and their activities was shown, prepared by Lauren Fields, Panhellenic Vice-President of Scholarship. All 5 greek councils were highlighted with their achievements of the past year from the podium. In addition Paige Adams-Geller, Delta Gamma, presented remarks as the keynote speaker, focusing on how her experiences as a USC greek have catapulted her to entrepreneurial success.

The 2013 Greek Gala also featured a silent auction and casino games. All Panhellenic chapters and many chapter parent clubs contributed unique and exciting items to the silent auction to add to the money raised for the USC Greek Endowment Fund through the 2013 Greek Gala. On behalf of the 2013 Panhellenic Executive Board, I want to express our deep appreciation for all those who attended and for the countless hours of meticulous planning contributed by 2013 Panhellenic Executive Board members and Panhellenic Delegates.

The Panhellenic Council had a very eventful fall semester at USC, and I couldn’t be more proud or honored to represent such a wonderful group of motivated, talented, and accomplished women. The semester was off to a great start, with over 1,050 women participating in recruitment—a record breaking number in USC’s 100 year history! Throughout formal recruitment, the Panhellenic Council worked collectively with each chapter to create greater transparency regarding recruitment rules and regulations. Additionally, we emphasized a values-based recruitment for both the chapters and potential new members. The newest chapter of Panhellenic, Alpha Gamma Delta, successfully re-colonized this past fall with over 130 bids offered to new members. Alpha Gamma Delta will be participating in formal recruitment next fall, and will be moving into their renovated house on 28th Street this spring.

Panhellenic also continued to develop innovative procedures to manage risk among the chapters and increase involvement with DPS officers, LAPD, USC Counseling Services, and The Center for Women and Men. Panhellenic attended the weekly DPS meetings with the Interfraternity presidents to de-brief every weekend and understand what the community needs. In addition, Panhellenic held bi-weekly meetings with chapter presidents and risk managers to brainstorm, share risk management ideas and come up with a system of best practices. Panhellenic was actively involved in meetings with administrators throughout the fall semester and helped build the language for a new social policy at USC.

Philanthropy has always been important to the greek community. This past semester, the Panhellenic Council organized Food Truck Wars, a day-long event in Alumni Park featuring 3 food trucks and an accessory boutique truck. Each truck paid a $75 flat fee to participate and contributed an additional 15% of their revenue throughout the day for Camp Kesum, the winner of our pitch competition in April. Over $1000 was raised in total for Camp Kesum. This was also a great opportunity to spread information about their organization for children with cancer. In addition, Panhellenic participated in Friends and Neighbors Day at Blazers Youth LA, an after-school learning center for children in the local community.

Also this semester, Panhellenic has placed a strong emphasis on scholarship. PHC is proud to announce that the Panhellenic Women’s GPA is higher than the all-women’s GPA at USC. Panhellenic continued its faculty appreciation program, where each chapter recognizes 2 professors for innovative teaching. The nominated professors receive a special engraved pen thanking them for their contributions to USC academics. Additionally, an advertisement was placed in the Daily Trojan acknowledging all of the professors that were recognized. The Panhellenic Council also created incentives to promote scholarship among the chapters. The chapter with the highest GPA received a food truck as a reward, and the runner up received cupcakes. Individual members with a GPA of 3.8 or higher were rewarded as well and received cupcakes along with an encouraging note. Finally, the Panhellenic Council offered a $1,000 scholarship to every chapter to award to one of their deserving members.

Gamma Sigma Alpha Initiates New Members

Congratulations to the Fall 2013 initiates of Gamma Sigma Alpha, initiated at the Davidson Conference Center on November 12! The evening began with a welcome speech by Co-Presidents Jeffrey Bassette and Brian Bloch. The keynote speakers included Geza Paul Bottlik, Senior Lecturer at the USC Viterbi School of Engineering, and Dan Schnur, Director of the Jesse M. Unruh Institute of Politics. Another speaker at the induction was Mike Alpert, student co-founder and member of Lambda Chi Alpha. The 25th anniversary video of Gamma Sigma Alpha was taped at this ceremony. Gamma Sigma Alpha, now a leading nationwide honors organization for greeks, was started at USC by our very own Beth Saul.

The Panhellenic Council continued to form strong relationships with campus organizations, and increased our visibility with the University. On November 19th, Panhellenic participated in an interactive ally training workshop with the LGBT Resource Center. Panhellenic also helped set the groundwork for the “Let’s Talk about Sex” event with the Women’s Student Assembly. We are very excited to continue working with these organizations for years to come! Finally, Panhellenic planned the 6th annual Greek Gala and raised over $10,000 dollars for the Greek Endowment Fund. The attendance was the highest it has ever been, representing students, parents, alumni, administrators and professors.

Although this term for the 2013 Panhellenic Council is coming to a close, I am confident that the momentum and positive direction will continue to push the boundaries. I am extremely proud of all of the work this board has accomplished, and cannot wait to see what happens next year with the newly elected board! As always, feel free to send me any comments, questions, or concerns at uscphcpresident@gmail.com. Fight on!

The Interfraternity Council had a great semester at USC this fall. Nine Interfraternity Council scholarships were awarded in the amount of $1,000 in order to maintain a focus on the high quality and caliber of men in the greek community. Additionally, IFC implemented the all greek calendar and event registration in order to help maintain transparency between the university and the fraternities, helping chapters to plan events more easily and to encourage early event planning. The Interfraternity Council also increased two-way communication with the Department of Public Safety by planning weekly meetings with Chief Adams. Together, they implemented an event response team.

The Interfraternity Council was pleased to hold the second LGBT Ally Training session this fall. This semester’s training was geared towards officers and leaders in each chapter, in order to equip them with the tools necessary to make their chapters LGBT safe zones. Finally, the Interfraternity Council led the USC Greek Movember Initiative and helped raised over $27,000.

Asian Greek Council

This past semester, Asian Greek Council recruited and welcomed about eighty new members among our five organizations. We had a successful new member mixer at EVK Dining Hall where these new members were able to meet and mingle with the other new members of the other organizations. Our main philanthropy event for this past semester was “Operation Christmas Child” where each of our organizations submitted a gift wrapped shoebox filled with toys and stationary to be sent to less fortunate children abroad. We are looking forward to installs and a career night in spring 2014.

Multicultural Greek Council

The Multicultural Greek Council (MGC) accomplished many great strides during the Fall 2013 semester. The council comprised of 12 unique fraternities and sororities, is determined to enhance the USC community, as well as their member’s college experiences and development as leaders. This semester MGC focused on helping our member organizations with recruitment. We developed a tips sheet for our members to implement and to increase the visibility of MGC and its organizations. Additionally we hosted a beach bonfire in order to promote networking and collaboration between organizations. We also used this time for team building activities and to increase the familiarity between each chapter. MGC is also very proud of our newest sorority, Sigma Delta Sigma, who has had a very successful semester and has initiated four new members. And as of Fall 2013, MGC has a new member fraternity, Gamma Zeta Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated. We are very proud of our newest members and are very excited for what Spring 2014 holds for us as a council. Thank you once again; it has truly been fantastic semester for our council.

Gamma Phi Beta turns 75!

Congratulations to the members of Gamma Phi Beta at USC on 75 years of sisterhood!

Gamma Phi Beta celebrated this occasion at a Town and Gown luncheon where alumnae and new members bonded over their sorority experiences. World-renowned violinist and USC Gamma Phi Beta alumna Elizabeth Pitcairn gave a wonderful performance at the event on her historic red violin. Guests could also participate in a silent auction for a variety of prizes. Proceeds went to a chapter front porch building initiative.

Panhellenic Council

Alpha Chi Omega

This fall, Alpha Chi Omega experienced a strong recruitment and welcomed a wonderful new pledge class. With the creation of an alumnae database and new advisory board, we hosted multiple networking events and strengthened ties with our local and national alumnae. Lastly, we were proud to host our annual Candlelight Vigil and philanthropy events this October supporting our national philanthropy of domestic violence awareness.

Alpha Delta Pi

Alpha Delta Pi had a semester packed with exciting events! We established a strong academic foundation by hosting the school-wide event Greeks Meet the Firms and a scholarship dinner to network with professors. Our All-American BBQ Philanthropy raised over $2400 to support the Ronald McDonald House Charities. ADPi’s involvement with the greek community not only includes winning the Phi Delta Theta FIFA philanthropy, but also hosting greek fitness classes on our lawn and having a charity gift-wrap party with our sister sorority. We had an amazing semester, filled with social events, philanthropic efforts, and inter-greek events!

Delta Delta Delta

Delta Delta Delta has had many accomplishments this past semester. We are so proud of being awarded the highest GPA on the Row, with a chapter average of 3.5. Due to a successful recruitment, we have a talented, diverse new member class of 64 women who have shown their abilities as leaders. We also held our first annual Tri-Delta Game Day, and have raised over $30,000 for St. Jude just this past year.

Delta Gamma

This fall, Delta Gamma was thrilled to welcome 71 incredible and accomplished young women into the chapter. A wide variety of events marked this semester as a success, including our annual philanthropy Anchor Splash, a sisterhood event at Disneyland, Scholarship Dinner with Dr. Ainsley Carry, crowning our Anchor Man Barret Hirschberg, and exchanges with Sigma Chi, TKE, and Lambda. We had a blast being paired with Lambda Chi Alpha for Homecoming, winning first place in the overall Homecoming competition! We are looking forward to another fantastic semester!

Kappa Alpha Theta

Theta kicked off the Fall with much excitement, recruiting 73 phenomenal new members. The semester’s activities highlighted our leadership in campus organizations, our members’ academic achievements, our Trojan gameday spirit, fraternity exchanges, and “Kat in the Hat,” our mystery date formal. We actively supported our national philanthropy, CASA, by gift-wrapping and selling shirts. Locally we continued weekly reading to preschoolers. Lastly, our alumni networking night was well-received. Theta looks forward to another enriching semester.
Kappa Kappa Gamma

This fall was a wonderful semester for our chapter. Specifically, one highlight that made this semester special was our amazing experience with GIRLS Academy: Girls Inspiring Respect Leadership and Service. It was an honor to be selected by Kappa Kappa Gamma Headquarters to host GIRLS Academy at USC and to be seen as role models and mentors for these middle school aged girls was truly a gift. It was a growing experience not only for the participants of GIRLS Academy but also for our active members.

Pi Beta Phi

This semester, we held our annual sand volleyball tournament, Arrowspike, and raised over $10,000 for both the Pi Beta Phi Foundation and the Scott Carter Foundation. Because of this, as well as our literacy program First Book, we were named the number two fundraising Pi Phi in North America. We also recently organized an event with Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity, in which we hosted Taya Kyle, the wife of American Sniper Chris Kyle, to speak to the community and raise money for the Boot Campaign in support of veterans.

Sigma Delta Tau

Sigma Delta Tau has had an amazing fall semester! We returned to formal recruitment, something we have not done in five years, to garner a great fall new member class. Our fall philanthropy was a huge success, raising over $3,000 for Prevent Child Abuse America. We were also blessed to participate in Campus Kisses, a program where we sent over 1000 postcards to troops overseas. We look forward to what the spring semester brings us!

Interfraternity Council

Alpha Gamma Omega

The Alpha Gamma Omega fraternity has enjoyed a great semester of brotherhood in the Fall of 2013. Some highlights include: a trip to Tijuana, Mexico where some of the brothers were able to finish work on a house for a needy family, a second-place finish in AGO’s National flag football tournament, and a successful “Mocktails” party and corresponding toy drive for Toys For Tots.

Alpha Tau Omega

In the past year, ATΩ welcomed 44 new brothers into the house, bringing total membership to well over 100 of USC’s finest men. Our chapter was also awarded the prestigious True Merit award by the ATΩ national fraternity. Combining ATΩ’s philanthropic commitment with its relationship with USC’s sororities, the men of ATΩ and the ladies of ΔΔΔ rallied together and spent an exciting Homecoming week supporting the Jumpstart Foundation.

Beta Theta Pi

The men of Beta Theta Pi have had an incredible semester! After a successful recruitment and pledge period, we have brought our total membership to over 105 members. In addition, we just completed our first Movember fundraiser, where we raised over $15,000 for Prostate Cancer Research, making us the highest fundraising college organization in the country!
Delta Chi

Delta Chi’s Southern California chapter has had an excellent semester. Our annual philanthropy “Sorority Shootout” 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament was again a success, raising more than $2,000 for the V Foundation for Cancer Research, and the associate member class – filled with many aspiring greek community leaders – boasted 100% retention. The fabulous Greek Gala highlighted the semester’s end, with one of Delta Chi’s most distinguished alumni, Rod Dedeaux, being posthumously inducted into the recently created Greek Hall of Fame.

Phi Kappa Psi

Phi Psi has enjoyed another successful fall semester. We were lucky enough to have President Nikias speak at our scholarship dinner this semester where we recognized brothers for their academic success and also gave out over $40,000 in scholarships. We were also privileged to enjoy our Homecoming festivities with the lovely ladies of Kappa Kappa Gamma, which made for an amazing Homecoming week and game day. The brothers of Phi Psi were happy to enjoy another successful semester at USC and look forward to a great spring.

Pi Kappa Phi

There is no doubt that Pi Kappa Phi’s biggest fall highlight was in philanthropy. Our annual fall philanthropy, Winter Wars, raised thousands for our national non-profit organization, Push America. Our proudest philanthropy was our first annual Brunch with Buddies. We teamed up with USC Best Buddies to bring over 50 high school students with disabilities from a local school to our front lawn for a day of brunch and games. We raised over $2,000 for USC Best Buddies to fund more programming.

Sigma Nu

Fall 2013 proved to be an excellent semester for the Epsilon Omicron chapter of Sigma Nu. Our bonded pledge class has helped to add character and strengthen tradition within our new chapter house. Our alumni have been reinvigorated resulting in chapter events being as strong as ever. The newly elected Executive Council is confident and focused on increasing philanthropy, academics, and our great brotherhood in 2014.
Asian Greek Council

Delta Phi Kappa

In the fall 2013 semester, the sisterhood of Delta Phi Kappa has concentrated its efforts in philanthropy and internal development. Through our optimistic participation on campus and in the community through APASA events, College Days, LA AIDS Walk and Operation Christmas Child, our sisters have definitely been rewarded through giving. Having stressed an emphasis on leadership development and scholastic achievements through our Google workshops, improved mentorship program, and cabinet one-on-one sessions, Deltas put on several successful fundraisers and sisterhoods this year. We look forward to making longer strides in the spring semester with bigger and better goals toward our annual service project of youth development and strengthening our amazing sisterhood.

Professional

Delta Kappa Alpha (Cinema)

Delta Kappa Alpha has hosted a number of professional workshops, including a resume-building workshop, cover letter workshop and Interactive Media workshop. Also, USC Professor Michael Cassutt, writer and producer, lead a pitch workshop for the chapter. The Alpha chapter also hosted a free pre-screening of The Hunger Games: Catching Fire open to the entirety of USC! Lastly, we held the 1st Annual All-Nighter Film Festival, a 24-hour film competition open to all USC students.

Omega Phi Beta

Omega Phi Beta Sorority Inc. had a very successful semester. We hosted our annual Week of Illumination events with organizations such as Latina/o Student and the Women's Student Assemblies to promote our motto, “Serving and Educating Through Our Diversity”. In collaboration with Undergraduate Student Government we hosted “The Golden Legacy Benefit Banquet: Honoring a Decade of Radiance” during Homecoming Weekend. This event supported our national philanthropy of “Raising Awareness of Violence Against Women” by raising $400 for Peace Over Violence, a not-for-profit organization that offers legal, counseling and moral support to victims of domestic violence.
